 RE: ADDENDUM No. 2
Request for Information (RFI) ETF0028
Pharmacy Benefit Management Services

Please note the following updates to the referenced RFI above:

1. GENERAL RFI INFORMATION
 Addendum #2 is the final addendum issued for RFI ETF0028. ETF will no longer respond to questions addressed by Vendors for this RFI effective the date of Addendum #2.
2. ADD the following answers by ETF to questions submitted by Vendors.

No.	Question
Q1	Regarding RFI ETF0028 for PBM services, when would the expected effective date of the contract be, and who is the current PBM?
A1	The current contract expires on December 31, 2017. The vendor for the current contract is Navitus Health Solutions. The effective start date of the new contract will be January 1, 2018. At this time, there is no end date established for the new contract.
Q2	Section 3.2.4 Fully Transparent Revenue and Cost Models – Can the State please provide clarification with regard to the meaning/intent of “gross and net cost models”?
A2	ETF is interested in learning more about various financial cost models being utilized by PBMs, regardless of whether the model is focused on gross costs or net costs.

This Addendum will be available on ETF’s Extranet in the near future at <https://etfonline.wi.gov/etf/internet/RFP/PharBeneMgmt16/index.htm>.
